A

Human mobility – in the past, present, and future

The Kasematten, a former city fortification and now a unique architectural monument, is where the history of mobility comes to life. The focus of this exhibition is the Wiener Neustadt area and the city's relationships with the rest of the world.

B

City cosmos – beyond the city limits

Wiener Neustadt presents itself against the backdrop of global history in the former 13th-century abbey church of St. Peter an der Sperr. The city's historical development – from onetime imperial residence to industrial city and the modern-day centre of innovation it is today – is told through the biographies of key figures.
